FROM: SAC, LOUISVILLE (52A-4926) (P)

JOHNNIE WAYNE TODD, aka
 John Todd;
 TGP
 (OO: Louisville)

Enclosed for the Bureau is packaged evidence containing one letter and one envelope.

For information of Identification Division:

JOHNNIE WAYNE TODD is a reported "Jim Jones" type of individual with a small following. TODD also is a paramilitary fanatic who sets up survival camps across the country. Recent information from an anonymous source has been that TODD possibly has at his residence an arsenal of guns (M-16 automatic rifles) and bombs (hand grenades, claymore mines, etc.). According to the source, TODD is planning a terrorist strike against Fort Knox military reservation.

TODD's background is such that he enjoys publicity about being persecuted by the U.S. Government and local [REDACTED] the publicity supports TODD's claims of persecution to his followers making him more of a martyr in their eyes. [REDACTED] feels that the letter sent and the anonymous telephone calls were probably done by TODD in order to get publicity about being investigated and harassed by the Bureau and local authorities.

The enclosed letter was mailed to the FBI Office, Louisville, Kentucky, on 1/30/84. The envelope and contents were carefully opened and preserved due to its evidentiary nature. Possible subject in case is as described JOHNNIE WAYNE TODD:
